DOCTORAL DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

General policies for all University of Oklahoma doctoral programs are available in the Graduate College Bulletin.

DOCTOR of PHILOSOPHY

MAJOR: Planning, Design and Construction

CONCENTRATION: Architecture

Program effective Summer 2014

COURSEWORK REQUIREMENTS

Although all concentrations require a total of 58 hours of post-master’s work, each College of Architecture division will tailor their requirements depending on the dissertation topic.

General Education

- Master’s level equivalent coursework in architecture, construction, interior design, landscape architecture, and planning ........................................................... 32 hours

Core PDC Courses

- PDC 6003 History and Philosophy of Planning, Design and Construction ........................................ 3 hours
- PDC 6023 Advanced Research Methods .......................................................... 3 hours
  Total .............................................................................................................. 6 hours

- Core – Guided Architecture Concentration ........................................................................ 9 hours
  With assumption that Ph.D. students will enter with a master’s in architecture, a selection of three of the following courses:
  - ARCH 5083 Advanced Architectural Computer Applications
  - ARCH 6013 Advanced Seminar in the History and Theory of Urban Design
  - ARCH 6133 Sustainable Design Analytics
  - ARCH 6143 Theory of Sustainability
  - RCPL 5463 Geographic Information Systems for Land Use Planning
  - GEOG 6953 Research Methods in Geography

- Concentration - Guided .................................................................................. 43 hours
  Includes minimum 2 hours dissertation preparation (PDC 6980 Research for Doctoral Dissertation).

- TOTAL ........................................................................................................... 90 hours