The Women and Girls Across Gender Initiative is offering a microseminar, titled “Women and Girls in the Carceral State: A Film Series.” The course will begin in the Spring 2020 semester as a 1-credit hour microseminar for graduate and upper-level undergraduate students.

The microseminar will consist of reading, writing and discussion organized around a series of film screenings. This microseminar explores feminist, queer or other gender and sexuality-related lines of inquiry through a deep exploration of the carceral state. The microseminar will meet five times during the Spring 2020 semester, with three meetings including a film screening and discussion.

Films for screening and discussion:

1. “The Chief’s Two Bodies: Theresa Spence and the Gender of Settler Sovereignty” Unsettling Conversations
2. Beth Richie: Elective Studies Supper Club Vol. 15: Beth Richie
3. Southwest of Salem: The Story of the San Antonio Four

The film screenings will be open to the public, and students will help curate the series.

For questions or accommodations, please contact Jasmine Brown (jasmine.brown-1@ou.edu).